

Depending on how the class develops, a second diagnostic handout might not be needed.

If this second handout is needed, I'll announce it in class and the handout will be posted here well in advance of the session in which we use it.